GUIDE TO ENGLAND

The domestic stay and play break is still very much alive and well, bringing smiles to golfing faces the length and breadth of the country. England has masses of options but we've highlighted a selection of our bestsellers here. So what makes them so popular?

Convenience for one; park up, forget about the car and relax. And quality, too. Many of our popular resorts have top class championship courses, some with Tour pedigree. The value is unbeatable as well on these short residential breaks, with super dining and spa often part of the package. What's not to like?

West Midlands

- Impressive £26 million refurbishment of the hotel and facilities
- Four great dining experiences - including the stylish Ryder Grill
- State-of-the-art leisure club with unique Fire and Ice Sensarium
- Great location just 20 minutes from lively Birmingham city centre

Location

Located in the centre of the UK, The Belfry is situated just 10 minutes from Birmingham International Airport which covers a range of UK and Irish destinations including Newcastle (flight time: 1hr) Edinburgh, Glasgow, Dublin, Belfast (1hr15), Cork (1hr30) and Shannon (1hr45). Alternatively, New Street Station is 20 minutes away from the resort by car and receives trains from across the UK including London Euston, Glasgow Central and Edinburgh Waverley.

Accommodation

The famous ivy-clad façade, the views over the 18th green and towards the unmistakable 10th, the feeling of being among history all mean only one place: The Belfry. It's a fantastic experience; the hotel, its restaurants, bars, the world-class spa and the legendary Bel Air nightclub help to set the scene for an experience that can be rivalled by very few. What's more, the luxurious Belfry Club offers a range of facilities including a pool, sauna and steam room.

Golf

There is only one UK resort at which you can play a four-time Ryder Cup host, not to mention two other excellent courses. The Belfry and its renowned Brabazon Course are part of golfing folklore - who could forget Sam Torrance's 18th hole heroics in 1985, or the jubilant Paul McGinley sinking the winning putt in 2002? These famous moments are what make The Brabazon so special, and should inspire every golfer to visit.

FAST FACTS

Your Golf Travel Tip
There's never been a better time to visit The Belfry - the hotel is top notch. We love the Brabazon Bar for a pre-dinner drink!

Point of Interest
The Brabazon Course takes most of the plaudits at The Belfry but the PGA National is a highly underrated championship test.

GUIDE TO SCOTLAND

Following on from the successful European defence of the Ryder Cup at Gleneagles, Scotland has grown ever popular as the home of golf. The country is most famous for its world-class links layouts but as the PGA Centenary at Gleneagles proved, golfers will also be stunned by the inland courses on offer.

Scotland will return to the golfing spotlight once more in 2015 when the 144th Open Championship returns to the famous links of St. Andrews. Why not follow in the footsteps of golfing greats by choosing the home of golf for your next trip.

GUIDE TO WALES

Wales has a propensity to exceed expectation at almost every turn, both on the golf course and off it. The warmth of the welcome heralds the beginning of wonderful, surprising golf travel experiences, whether you choose to stay and play or explore on tour.

The 2010 Ryder Cup was not the start of Wales' golfing journey, but more recognition of the fact that it's golfing offerings score highly on both quality and diversity. Links courses like Royal Porthcawl and St. David's join stay and play heavyweights like Celtic Manor Resort and The Vale with truly impressive results.

VERDURA RESORT
Sciaccia - Sicily

- Two impressive links-style courses designed by Kyle Phillips
- Renowned hotelier Sir Rocco Forte's first and only golf resort
- All-year-round resort boasting 2km private Mediterranean coastline
- World-class facilities and a wide range of leisure pursuits

Location

Verdura is set on the rugged coastline of southern Sicily, near the seaside town of Sciaccia. Palermo airport is 133km from the resort and the journey is approximately 80 minutes by car. Palermo can be reached from London Gatwick in approximately 2 hours 50 minutes and flights are operated regularly by EasyJet. Transfers from the airport to Verdura by private car can be arranged or alternatively, hiring a car is recommended.

Accommodation

Verdura sets the bar for 5* hospitality in golf travel. Although the two Kyle Phillips designed golf courses are the main attraction at the resort, this ultra-stylish and exclusive destination offers much, much more. The 203 rooms and suites at Verdura are equal parts opulence and sophistication, and all serve up panoramic views over the golf courses to Sicily's southern shores.

Golf

Sharing a designer with the likes of Kingsbarns and The Grove adds considerable kudos to the golf project at Verdura. The specification is in keeping with the hotel and resort facilities, very high end, and the presentation of the courses is immaculate. Each of the two layouts conceived by Phillips is more than 7,400 yards at tournament length, although both are available to regular guests at less substantial total distances.

GUIDE TO PORTUGAL

If you think about the key components of a good golf holiday, it becomes very clear very quickly why Portugal remains at the top of many a golfing wishlist. Year round warm climate, a plentiful supply of affordable flights, courses and resorts of the utmost quality and plenty of off-course appeal - all can be found in Portugal with ease.

Of our favourites (there are many...), classics like Penina and Dona Filipa remain irresistible, while Vilamoura is the all encompassing European resort town whose unique combination of outstanding courses, comprehensive hotel options and a charming marina make it hard to beat.

Cascais

- PGA Challenge Tour event host
- Outstanding 18-hole course
- Modern Portuguese dining
- Located on the doorstep of Cascais

Location

Located in the coastal town of Cascais, the Quinta da Marinha Resort is only 4km from the popular Guincho Beach and a 30 minute drive from Lisbon Airport. Flights to Lisbon are available from Dublin Airport, all London Airports, Bristol Airport, Edinburgh Airport, Liverpool Airport and Manchester Airport; and with a flight time of just 2.5 hours from most airports in the UK, flying to Lisbon couldn't be more convenient.

Accommodation

Guests can choose from the luxurious hotel, complete with modern facilities and amenities, or the equally comfortable villas, which lend themselves perfectly to larger groups and families. The hotel is set against the backdrop of the golf course and the Sintra Mountains, making the view from your private balcony so special. The hotel underwent an extensive re-styling in 2014, including key areas; lobby, rooms, Rocca and Five Pines Restaurants, and Trent Jones Bar.

Golf

The golf course was designed by Robert Trent Jones and is regarded as one of the best new golf courses in Europe. Set against the astounding backdrop of the Atlantic Coast, the par-71 layout measures 6,419-yards from the championship tees, and is a terrific test for every player. Quinta da Marinha is also a great place for some tuition, where the resident PGA professionals use the same technology that Tiger Woods utilises to streamline his swing.

GUIDE TO SPAIN

Golf holidays in Spain offer sun, sea, and quality courses, with the lengthy Mediterranean coastline being packed with phenomenal golfing possibilities.

No matter the time of year, Spain is generally blessed with sunshine; in fact, the Murcia region claims the most hours of sunshine per year of any on the continent. While Spain's south is its most popular, the Costa Brava is the country's emerging star - with the Girona area being home to some of Europe's top courses. While the upstarts are attracting some attention, the Costa Del Sol in the Andalusia region is still the king of Spanish golf.

Malaga

- Outstanding golf resort - home to three championship courses
- Andalucian style hotel boasting 107 superbly appointed rooms
- World-class sports facility with acres of outdoor space to explore
- Peaceful setting just 20 minutes from cosmopolitan Marbella

Location

Although located in a tranquil environment, La Cala Resort is only 30 minutes from Malaga Airport, in the heart of the Costa del Sol. Flights to Malaga from UK and Irish airports take around 2.5 hours and are frequent, especially during the busy summer months. A range of flight operators cover the route including BA, Ryanair, easyJet, Monarch and Aer Lingus. We recommend keeping an eye out for last minute deals which could see you pocket a bargain!

Accommodation

La Cala Hotel is located in the heart of the 3 golf courses, surrounded by spectacular scenery with breathtaking views. Mijas Costa is a short transfer from Malaga Airport and many of the popular coastal towns are within easy reach for an evening out, while back on the resort there are good restaurant and bar options. La Cala's spa is also one of the most picturesque in Spain, offering an extensive treatment menu that's ideal for both golfers and non-golfers.

Golf

La Cala is among Europe's leading facilities, with three courses and a state-of-the-art Academy. The America Course with par 72 is wide, with linked fairways and relatively few bunkers which makes this a slightly easier driving course. The Europa Course is the most recent construction with generous fairways, flatter terrain and slightly larger greens. The Asia Course is the oldest, has plenty of challenging holes and is the narrower and shorter of the 3.

Point of Interest
Yes, this is a three-course resort so it's big on golf, but with the superb spa this is a great non-golfer retreat too.

- 36-holes of spectacular golf in a stunning natural environment
- Four dining venues; from buffet dining to in-room service

- Marina is ideal for sailing, diving, windsurfing and kite surfing

Location

Set in the picturesque fishing village of El Rompido, the resort is just an hours drive from Seville Airport (Spain) and Faro Airport (Portugal). Perched on the magnificent unspoilt Huelva coastline, El Rompido is wedged between the hot spots of the Algarve and the Costa Del Sol. The resort boasts 196 superbly appointed bedrooms/suites, all of which are decorated in a contemporary fashion. Guests will enjoy cooling off in the indoor and outdoor pools, while the nearby beaches are absolutely stunning. In the leisure complex, facilities include jacuzzis, a sauna, steam room and tennis courts.

Golf

With the inauguration of its second course in 2006, El Rompido is now one of the most comprehensive golf resorts in Western Andalusia. The South and North courses have been designed by Alvaro Arana, and are located in a stunning environment in the Marismas del Rio Piedras, a vast natural park situated around the mouth of the estuary.

Overlooking the two golf courses, the Hotel Meliá Villaitana 4* has 356 rooms, with rooms including features such as high-speed internet access, satellite television and a balcony or terrace. The Level Villaitana 5* boasts 99 rooms, comprised of superior rooms and a number of opulent suites. By choosing the 5* accommodation guests will benefit from more space and a greater level of privacy.

Golf

The golfing complex is located on the fringes of the resort and boasts two 18-hole courses, designed by golf's greatest name, Jack Nicklaus. # GUIDE TO MOROCCO

Still burgeoning from a raft of investment in its golfing facilities, Morocco now packs a serious punch in attracting the avid golf traveller. Marrakech is the focus, courtesy of having the greatest concentration of courses, but it's by no means your only option.

Casablanca, thanks to the extraordinary Mazagan development, is an intriguing choice, while Agadir and Fes have not been spared in the pursuit of golfing excellence. Flight access is good, and the more than pleasant temperature averages returned during our cold winter months, there's little to hinder Morocco's appeal.

GUIDE TO CYPRUS

A pretty comprehensive coverage of UK routes from a range of carriers makes Paphos ideal for a sunny escape from September right through to early summer. And what's more, the climate is more than golf-friendly, apart from the fiery months of July and August.

The small but wonderfully formed collection of courses is ideal for a week's holiday, providing diversity of style and setting. Choose from central hotel accommodation in Paphos itself or opt for the easy life at the award-winning Aphrodite Hills resort, where the abundance of dining options and leisure activities can satisfy almost any demand.
